Belgrade Lakes, Maine.

Dear Mr. Beaver:-

I intended to ask Mr. Reilly for your summer address when he returned, the middle of last month but he got away without me having done so. I wished to write you that at our last meeting of our Society you were unanimously elected a patron of our Society in virtue of your gift of your collection of Political Medals and tokens.

I happened to be present at that meeting of the Council and I think you will be glad to know that they were very cordial in the expression of their appreciation of your gift.

I trust your vacation is proving a pleasant one and I hope that your next venture fishing will bring you a record breaking catch.

Very respectfully yours,

Secretary.

Dear Mr. Nor:

Replying to your very kind letter of Sept. 27, I regret I will not be in New York and able to attend the meeting this week.

Mrs. Beane is convalescing from a serious illness and it is important to keep her here where the weather is ideal. We will not be in N.Y. for ten days at least.
With kind regards to all,

Mr. Fowland wood
American Numismatic Society
New York City

Dear Mr. Wood:

A young lady up here has a two dollar bank note bearing the name of "B. Franklin". It appears never to have been circulated and is not signed by the bank officials. It was issued by the Piscataqua Exchange Bank of New Hampshire prior to 1850. I attach a rough sketch of the note.

At your convenience please let me know about its rarity and its value as a curio.

I will return to New York about October 1st and will then call to see you. With kind regards,

Sincerely yours,

W. P. Beaver

Mr. W. P. Beaver,

New York, N. Y.

Dear Mr. Beaver:

I am very glad to see your signature again as being in this country, and trust that we will see you on your arrival in New York.

The bank note of the Piscataqua Exchange Bank has no especial value. These old broken bank notes, and especially those unsigned, keep turning up from all directions. Collectors pay anywheres from ten to twenty-five cents for these.

Very truly yours,

Curator.

Dear Mr. Beaver:

Evidently through a mistake, a second cheque was sent to us for Fifteen Dollars ($15.00) to cover your Membership dues for 1924. Today we received the enclosed, together with the receipted bill, which we take pleasure in returning to you. The first cheque was dated January 3rd, for which we thank you.

Very truly yours,

William F. Beaver, Esq.
Royal Victoria Hotel
Nassau, Bahamas

Dear Mr. Beaver:

Mr. Reilly yesterday handed me your cheque for dues, and read us part of your letter telling of your experiences in Nassau. You are certainly fortunate to be out of the weather we are having here. I had hoped to have a word with you before you started, but that proved impossible.

Mr. Reilly told me that he had sent you an interesting article in the January Numismatist, and I am writing to the author to see if he will become a member of the Society.

The March number of The Numismatist will contain the account of our Annual Meeting which was held last Saturday; and while it was not very exciting, I believe you will find some matters of interest.

Please say that I asked you to give my greetings to Mrs. Beaver.

Sincerely yours,

Secretary

W. P. Beaver, Esq.
Camp Ahmeek
Belgrade Lakes, Me.

Dear Mr. Beaver:

Your letter to Mr. Wood was opened by me in his absence. For the month of July he is at Enfield, N.H. (C/O of Mr. George C. Marvin). In consequence, I took the afternoon off and went to the base-ball game instead. I am enclosing a clipping regarding it, as well as a circular which was distributed. Thank you very much for the opportunity.

I am glad to have the word regarding the Reillys - we have heard nothing for months.

I hope that your camp is proving a testful change.

Please say that I asked you to give my most cordial greetings to Mrs. Beaver.

Very sincerely yours,

Encs.
